THE STORY OF A NOSEPIECE.

HE Feast Nosepiece is the result of a well-defined demand that has been made on us for years. People have come to us again and again asking if it isn't possible in some way to get a nosepiece that would not slip or shake off. It was not only a question of economy so far as breaking lenses was concerned, but one of conven-

-We studied the problem-solved it. Its solution is in the FEAST NOSEPIECE—a nosepiece that every sort of a demonstration has proved cannot slip or shake off. It not only meets that requirement, but is cleanly - and doesn't mark the nose like the old pieces. Can be fitted to the eyeglass you're wearing-Gold, $1.50; Silver, 50c. —The Feast name is on the genuine.

Mother's Bread.

HE uniform excellence of Mother's Bread is the necessary result of a known cause. The processes we use, the care we display, the absolute certainty of results we are able to claim through chemical analysis of every ingredient, the perfection of every machine and appliance, must produce a bread unquestionably superior to any other where like facilities are not at the command of the baker, and this bakery is unique in respect to its facilities.

-Thousands know why they like Mother's Bread better than any other bread-few stop to study why. We'll tell all why from time to time, and make you as familiar with the process of breadmaking on the Corby plan as we are ourselves-starting with the laboratory, where all ingredients are analyzed-ending with the finished product as it goes to the table.

The ladies of a social club composed largely of the residents of Capitol Hill availed themselves yesterday of the leap year privilege and gave the gentlemen a theater party, followed by an oyster supper. The plans for the affair were so quietly conducted and the real purpose of the meeting called for last evening was so carefully guarded that not a man in the crowd knew where he was going until he landed in the lobby of the theater, and not a man knew what would be the finale of the entertainment until confronted by the tempting viands at a restaurant. The meek men were too much surprised to do aught but obey orders, and the ladies footed the bills. Those who composed the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Leo C. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. SMITH. In loving remembrance of our friend and comrade. STILLE CHEW SMITH, who passed from the arsenal to be with the Captain of his salvation on the 15th of February, in the year of our Lord 1904, aged twenty-four years.

The writer was intimately associated with Mr. Smith from the night after his conversion at the Washington barracks branch of the Central Union Mission, about the 19th of September. From that time his walk and conversation was that becoming a Christian. With his free, open and gental disposition and almost boyish frankness and innocence he made many friends here in the city.

To those friends has the news of his sudden death from typhoid pneumonia, after an illness of only three days' duration, come with such a shock as only a sudden death can bring. One of his favorite hymns was:

ON HIGHER GROUND.
I'm pressing on the upward way,
New heights I'm gaining every day;
Still praying as I onward bound,
Lord, plant my feet on higher ground Cho.
Lord, lift me up and let me stand
By faith on heaven's table land.
A higher plane than I have found;
Lord, plant my feet on higher groun

My heart has no desire to stay Where doubts arise and fears dismay; Tho' some may dwell where these ahound, My pray r, my alm is higher ground. I want to live above the world, Tho' Satan's darts at me are hurled For faith has caught the joyful sound. The song of saints on higher ground.

I want to scale the utmost height
And catch a gleam of glory bright,
For still I'll pray till heaven I've found,
"Lord, plant my feet on higher ground."
BY REV. JOHNSON OATMAN, Jr. We sincerely believe that the Lord has answered his prayer, and has "planted his feet on higher ground."

"There is no death! An angel form
Walks o'er the earth with silent tread;
He bears our best loved ones away,
And then we call them 'dead.'
And when he sees a smile too bright,
Or heart too pure for taint and vice,
He bears it to that world of light,
To dwell in paradise."

There was no death to this dear one;
He simply left the house of clay
For that one there his Lord prepared
For him to live in now for aye.
We would not have him to return
From those celestial realms of light
To this dark place, where to him now
All, all would seem to him as night.

All. all would seem to him as night.
Oh. no! But we do hope to live
To join him on the other shore.
And help him praise the Lord of Light
Forever and forever more.
And join with him in endless song
To God. who knew the best for him
And for the loved ones following on
Thro' this dark world of doubt and sin.

Peace and rest the world can't know.
Joy the world could never give.
Thou hast found, oh, Stille, dear,
Where with Jesus thou dost live.
